SKETCH OF THE HISTORY OF PARK STREET
CHURCH.

THE formation of a New Church and Ecclesiastical Society in Boston, on Evangelical principles, was proposed near the close of the year 1808, by a number of individuals, chiefly members of the Old South Church and Congregation; and a subscription opened for the erection of a place for public worship. On the evening of February 6, 1809, a meeting of the Subscribers was held to carry the proposed plan into execution. Ten individuals were present. The important measure was, at that meeting, resolved on. A committee was appointed to draw up ARTICLES OF FAITH, and a CHURCH COVENANT; to fix upon a lot of land; and to procure the plan of a building.

The Articles of Faith and the Church Covenant were reported, and adopted, February 23, 1809; together with a Letter Missive to be sent to some of the neighboring churches to assist in forming the Church.

The Church was gathered February 27, 1809. At its formation it consisted of 26 members: 21 by recommendation from other churches, and 5 by profession. The Ecclesiastical Council convened on this occasion were the Pastors and Delegates from the first Church in Cambridge, the first Church in Charlestown, and the Old South Church in Dorchester.

The corner-stone of Park Street Church was laid May 1, 1809. A plate, placed on the South East corner-stone, contains the following Inscription :

JESUS CHRIST
THE CHIEF CORNER-STONE :
IN WHOM
ALL THE BUILDING
FITLY FRAMED TOGETHER
GROWETH
UNTO AN HOLY TEMPLE
IN THE LORD.
THIS CHURCH FORMED
FEBRUARY 27TH,
AND THIS FOUNDATION LAID
MAY 1ST, 1809.

The Church, December 8, 1809, made choice of JOHN EUGENE TYLER and JOSIAH BUMSTEAD as Deacons.

The New Church was consecrated to the service of Almighty God, January 10, 1810.

The Church voted, March 2, 1810, that the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be celebrated four times a year.

Two years and five months elapsed, after the formation of the Church, before the settlement of a Pastor. During this period, Rev. Dr. Griffin was the stated preacher.

A call was given by the Church to Rev. EDWARD DORR GRIFFIN, D. D. to become its pastor, February 1, 1811. He accepted the invitation May 1, and was installed July 31, 1811.

At a meeting of the Church January 10, 1814, they adopted the following rule respecting baptized children.

Voted, "That it shall be a standing rule of the Church, to meet four times a year with the baptized children, viz. on Thursday afternoon before each sacrament, for the purpose of examining the progress of the children in Divine knowledge, (thereby ascertaining whether the parents have been faithful,) pressing upon them the obligations resulting from their Baptism, and commending them to God in prayer."

On the 12th of April, 1815, Rev. Dr. GRIFFIN, by letter, requested a dismission from his pastoral charge, to return to his former flock at Newark, New Jersey. A mutual council convened for this purpose April 27; when his pastoral relation with this Church was dissolved.

The Church remained without a Pastor two years and four months.

A call was given by the Church to Mr. SERENO EDWARDS DWIGHT to become its pastor May 19, 1817. He accepted the invitation July 20, and was ordained September 3, 1817.

The Church voted unanimously, September 7, 1817, to meet in the vestry, every Monday evening, to pray for a Revival of Religion.

By a vote of the Church, June 14, 1818, the Old South Church was invited to unite with this Church in the monthly concert for prayer. This proposal was unanimously agreed to by that Church. The meeting of the two Churches, for this purpose, was first held July 6, 1818, and has since been regularly held in Park Street Church. Since the first Monday of December, 1818, a contribution has been made at this meeting for the support of one of the missionaries to Jerusalem. By a vote of the two Churches the Church in Essex Street was invited to unite with them January, 1820.

Agreeably to the written request of several members of the church, it was unanimously voted, May 4, 1819, that the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be celebrated on the first Sabbath of each month. At the same meeting, in pursuance of a request from the two Deacons, the Church proceeded to the choice of additional Deacons, and JEREMIAH EVARTS and JOHN CLEVELAND PROCTOR were chosen.

In order to strengthen and aid the Union Church, seven male and two female members were dismissed for that purpose, August 26, 1822.

The whole number of persons who have been received into the Church is 490: 177 by recommendation; 313 by profession: 162 males; 328 females. Of these 40 are dead; 59 have been dismissed to other Churches; and 5 excommunicated. The present number is 386; of whom 119 are males and 267 females.

The admissions to the Church at different periods are as follows:

ARTICLES of Christian Faith and of Church Government, adopted by the Members of Park Street Church, February 23, 1809.

WE, the Subscribers, having agreed to unite in the establishment of a new Congregational Church in Boston, by the name of Park Street Church, think it proper to make a declaration of that Faith which is the bond of our ecclesiastical union, and which we shall expect to find in all those who shall hereafter participate in our religious privileges and communion.

First. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the word of God, and the only perfect rule of Christian faith and practice.

Second. We profess our decided attachment to that system of the Christian religion which is distinguishingly denominated Evangelical; more particularly to those doctrines, which in a proper sense, are styled the Doctrines of Grace, viz. "That there is one, and but one

 " living and true God, subsisting in three per" sons, the FATHER, the SON, and the HOLY " GHOST; and that these Three are the one
 " God, the same in substance, equal in power
 " and glory; that God from all eternity, ac" cording to the counsel of His own will, and
 " for his own glory, fore-ordained whatsoever
 " comes to pass; that God in His most holy,
 " wise and powerful providence preserves and
 " governs all his creatures and all their actions;
 " that by the Fall, all mankind lost communion
 " with God, are under His wrath and curse,
 " and liable to all the miseries of this life, to
 " death itself, and to the pains of hell forever;
 " that God, out of His mere good pleasure,
 " from all eternity elected some to everlasting
 " life, entered into a covenant of grace, to de-
 " liver them from a state of sin and misery,
 " and introduce them into a state of salvation
 " by a Redeemer; that this Redeemer is the " Lord JESUS CHRIST, the eternal Son of God,
 " who became man, and continues to be God
 " and man in two distinct natures and one
 " person forever; that the effectual calling of " sinners is the work of God's Spirit; that “ their justification is only for the sake of “ CHRIST’s righteousness by faith.” And though we deem no man or body of men infallible, yet we believe that those divines that were eminently distinguished in the time of the Reformation, possessed the spirit, and maintained in great purity, the peculiar doctrines of our holy religion; and that these doctrines are in general clearly and happily expressed in the Westminster Assembly’s Shorter Catechism, and in the Confession of Faith owned and consented unto by the Elders and Messengers of the Churches, assembled at Boston,

 (N. E.) May 12th, A. D. 1680.

Third. In regard to our ecclesiastical government and discipline, with our sister churches in this Commonwealth we adopt the congregational form, as contained in the Platform of Church Discipline, gathered out of the word of God, and agreed upon by the Elders and Messengers of the Churches, assembled in the Synod at Cambridge, (N. E.) A. D. 1648.

Fourth. In order to admission to membership in this Church, it is understood that every Candidate shall be previously examined, and give credible evidence of a ground of the comfortable hope of a personal condition of grace, through the renovation of the soul, by the special influences of the HOLY SPIRIT, implying repentance for sin and faith in JESUS CHRIST the Redeemer.

Finally. We hereby covenant and engage, as fellow Christians of one faith, and partakers of the same hope and joy, to give up ourselves unto the Lord, for the observing the ordinances of CHRIST together in the same society, and to unite together into one body for the public worship of God, and the mutual edification one of another in the fellowship of the Lord Jesus; exhorting, reproofing, comforting, and watching over each other, for mutual edification;—looking for that blessed hope and the glorious appearing of the great God, even our Saviour JESUS CHRIST, who gave Himself for us that He might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto Himself a peculiar people zealous of good works.

Boston, Feb. 27, A. D. 1809.

Form of Admission to the Church in Park Street, Boston.

You have presented yourselves in this public manner before God, to dedicate yourselves to His service, and to incorporate yourselves with His visible people. You are about to profess supreme love to Him, sincere contrition for all your sins, and faith unfeigned in the Lord JESUS CHRIST; to enter into a solemn covenant to receive the FATHER, SON, and HOLY GHOST, as they are offered in the Gospel, and to walk in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. We trust you have well considered the nature of these professions and engagements. The transaction is solemn, and will be attended with eternal consequences. God and holy angels are witnesses. Your vows will be recorded in heaven, to be exhibited on your trial at the Last Day. Yet be not overwhelmed. In the name of CHRIST you may come boldly to the God of grace, and provided only you have sincere desires to be His, may venture thus unalterably to commit yourselves, and trust in Him for strength to perform your vows.

Attend now to the

COVENANT.

In the presence of God, His holy angels, and this assembly, you do now solemnly dedicate yourselves to GOD the FATHER as your chief good; to the SON of GOD as your Mediator and Head, humbly relying on Him as your Prophet, Priest, and King; and to the HOLY SPIRIT as your Sanctifier, Comforter, and Guide, To this one GOD, FATHER, SON, and HOLY GHOST, you do heartily give up yourselves in an everlasting covenant to love and obey Him.

Having subscribed the Articles of Faith and Government adopted by this Church, you promise to walk with us in conformity to them, in submission to all the orders of the Gospel, and in attendance on all its ordinances, and that, by the aid of the Divine Spirit, you will adorn your profession by a holy and blameless life.

This, you severally profess and engage.

In consequence of these professions and promises, we affectionately receive you as members of this Church, and in the name of CHRIST declare you entitled to all its visible privileges. We welcome you to this fellowship with us in the blessings of the Gospel, and on our part engage to watch over you, and seek your edification, as long as you shall continue among us. Should you have occasion to remove, it will be your duty to seek and ours to grant a recommendation to another Church; for hereafter you can never withdraw from the watch and communion of the saints, without a breach of covenant.

And now, beloved in the Lord, let it be impressed on your minds, that you have entered into solemn circumstances from which you can never escape. Wherever you go, these vows will be upon you. They will follow you to the bar of God, and in whatever world you may be fixed, will abide upon you to eternity. You can never again be as you have been. You have unalterably committed yourselves and, henceforth you must be the servants of God. Hereafter the eyes of the world will be upon you ; and as you demean yourselves, so religion will be honoured or disgraced. If you walk worthy of your profession, you will be a credit and a comfort to us ; but if it be otherwise, you will be to us a grief of heart and a vexation. And if there is a wo pronounced on him who offends one of CHRIST's little ones, wo, wo to the person who offends a whole Church ! “ But beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.” May the Lord guide and preserve you till death, and at last receive you and us to that blessed world where our love and joy shall be forever perfect. Amen.
